Parks & Recreation and
The Rockaway Waterfront Alliance host

EARTH DAY: rockaway

Saturday, April 28, 2007

Rain Date: Sunday, April 29, 2007

12pm to 4pm

Beach 29th Street
(@ the Boardwalk)

On-site Parking Available

A One-Day Celebration of Earth Day in Far Rockaway

Come out and enjoy a day of activities and programs intended for families and kids of all ages.

Activities include Surf Fishing, Face Painting, a Dinosaur Dig on the Beach, Volleyball, Kite Making/Flying, "Seining," GPS Workshop, booths for kids to make their own spring plantings, Solar/Science Projects and Environmental Art Activities.

All activities are free to the public and intended to raise awareness of the natural resources along the Far Rockaway waterfront area.

This event is made possible through the generosity of the following local businesses and participating organizations:

American Littoral Society :: American Red Cross ::
Beachside Bungalow Preservation Association :: Dunkin' Donuts ::
GreenApple Corps :: Hamer-Campos Farmers' Market ::
MACHACEH Bayswater Baycombers Association ::
Neighborhood Open Space Coalition/Friends of Gateway ::
NYC Department of Environmental Protection ::
NYC Soil & Water Conservation District ::
Norton Basin Edgemere Stewardship Group :: PS 42 ::
PS 43 :: Queens Botanical Garden :: Rockaway Artists Alliance ::
Sebago Canoe Club :: Seagirt Beach Community Assoc. ::
Solar 1 :: South Shore Bicycle & Fitness :: Surfrider Foundation ::
Trader Joe's :: Zen Soy

City of New York
Parks & Recreation
Michael R. Bloomberg, Mayor
Adrian Benepe, Commissioner

CITIZENS for NYC

DEP

FPL Energy

ROCKAWAY WATERFRONT ALLIANCE