NOTICE
OF

JUVENILE COUNSELOR
Exam. No. 6035

WHEN TO APPLY: From: October 4, 2006      APPLICATION FEE: $35.00
To: October 24, 2006      Payable only by money order to D.C.A.S. (EXAMS)

THE TEST DATE: The multiple-choice test is expected to be held on Saturday, January 13, 2007.

WHAT THE JOB INVOLVES: At Assignment Level I: Juvenile Counselors, under direct supervision, during an assigned tour of duty, are responsible for the custody, direct care, supervision and counseling of juveniles in the custody of the Department of Juvenile Justice. They maintain the safety and order of juveniles in juvenile detention facilities, dormitories, corridors, dining rooms, recreation rooms and classrooms; accompany, supervise and provide security for juveniles during their transit to and presence at locations, such as courts, court detention rooms, hospitals and related facilities; shepherd juveniles through court processes during the adjudication of their cases; assist in maintaining the security of premises; identify and report any unusual occurrences; conduct searches to ensure the custody and safety of juveniles; establish rapport with juveniles to prevent confrontations; guide and direct group and recreational activities; implement constructive programs designed to establish a harmonious environment; counsel and help juveniles, individually or in group, to assist them in the development of socially desirable habits and behavior patterns; confer regularly with appropriate staff members regarding special issues of individual juveniles; oversee the sanitation, health and hygiene practices of juveniles; regularly take attendance of juveniles; prepare reports and keep records, as required, including making log book entries and preparing incident reports; may drive a motor vehicle to transport juveniles in care; attend and participate in training exercises to comply with mandated laws, departmental policies, and applicable rules and regulations; and perform related work.

Some of the physical activities performed by Juvenile Counselors and environmental conditions experienced are: standing for extended periods of time, walking up stairs, restraining juveniles if the situation warrants it, using physical force to break up fights, working for extended periods during the day or night, working outdoors as well as indoors, and driving a motor vehicle in all kinds of weather.

(This is a brief description of what you might do in this position and does not include all the duties of this position.)

Special Working Conditions: Juvenile Counselors are required to work shifts including nights, Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. Juvenile detention facilities are located in the Bronx, and Brooklyn. These facilities operate 24 hours a day/7 days a week. Courts are located in all boroughs. Locations and shift assignments are based on the needs of the agency.

THE SALARY: The current minimum salary is $31,095 per annum. This rate is subject to change. There are two assignment levels within this class of positions. Appointments will be made to Assignment Level I. After appointment, employees may be assigned to the higher level at the discretion of the agency.

HOW TO APPLY: If you believe that you meet the requirements in the "How to Qualify" section, refer to the "Required Forms" section below for the forms that you must fill out. Return all completed forms and the application fee to DCAS Applications Section, 1 Centre Street, 14th floor, New York, NY 10007 by mail only. DCAS will not accept applications in person from candidates.

HOW TO QUALIFY:

Education and Experience Requirements: By the last day of the Application Period you must have:

1. A baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university; or
2. An associate degree from an accredited college or university, or completion of 60 semester credits of study at an accredited college or university, plus two years of full-time satisfactory experience working directly with juveniles (ages 10 - 18) in a group, community, educational, or institutional setting; or
3. A four-year high school diploma or its educational equivalent, plus four years of full-time satisfactory experience as described in "2" above; or
4. A satisfactory combination of education and/or experience that is equivalent to "1", "2", or "3", above.

READ CAREFULLY AND SAVE FOR FUTURE REFERENCE

Experience may be substituted for education on the basis that one year of full-time satisfactory experience is equated to 30 college semester credits. However, all candidates must possess a four year high school diploma or its educational equivalent.

You may be given the test before we verify your qualifications. You are responsible for determining whether or not you meet the qualification requirements for this examination prior to submitting your application. If you are marked "Not Qualified," your application fee will not be refunded and you will not receive a score.

Special Requirement: Section 424-a of the New York State Social Services Law requires an authorized agency to inquire whether a candidate for employment with child-care responsibilities is or has been the subject of an indicated child abuse and maltreatment report on file with the statewide central register of child abuse and maltreatment.

To be considered for employment, the Department of Juvenile Justice must obtain State Central Register clearance prior to the date of appointment.

All candidates considered for appointment with the Department of Juvenile Justice will be fingerprinted and subject to a criminal history check.

Medical Requirement: Medical guidelines have been established for the position of Juvenile Counselor. Candidates will be examined to determine whether they can perform the essential functions of the position of Juvenile Counselor. Where appropriate, a reasonable accommodation will be provided for a person with a disability to enable him or her to take the examination, and/or to perform the essential functions of the job.

Section 180.8(i) of the New York State Juvenile Detention Facilities Regulations [9 NYCRR §180.8(i)] states that each facility shall observe the following:

- (i) Health Examination - A physical examination, including chest x-ray and serological tests as indicated, shall be required of all staff as a condition of employment.
- (ii) Annual re-examinations, including a tuberculin skin test, and chest x-ray if the skin test is positive, shall be required of staff having frequent and regular contact with children.

Drug Screening Requirement: You must pass a drug screening in order to be appointed.

Residency: City residency is not required for this position.

English Requirement: Candidates must be able to understand and be understood in English.

Proof of Identity: Under the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, you must be able to prove your identity and your right to obtain employment in the United States prior to employment with the City of New York.

REQUIRED FORMS:

1. Application for Examination: Make sure to follow all instructions included with your application form, including payment of fee. Save a copy of the instructions for future reference.
2. Education and Experience Test Paper: Write your social security number, the examination title and number in the box at the top right side of the cover page. Fill out Sections A.1, A.2, A.4, and B. This form must be filled out completely and in detail for you to receive your proper rating. Keep a copy of your completed Education and Experience Test Paper for your records.
3. Foreign Education Fact Sheet (Required only if you need credit for your foreign education to meet the education and experience requirements): If you were educated outside the United States, you must have your foreign education evaluated to determine its equivalence to education obtained in the United States. The services that are approved to make this evaluation are listed on the Foreign Education Fact Sheet included with your application packet. When you contact the evaluation service, ask for a "document-by-document" (general) evaluation of your foreign education. You must have one of these services submit its evaluation of your foreign education directly to the Department of Citywide Administrative Services no later than eight weeks from the last date for applying for this examination.

THE TEST: You will be given a multiple-choice test. Your score on this test will be used to determine your place on an eligible list. You must achieve a score of at least 70% to pass the test. The multiple-choice test may include questions which may require the use of any of the following abilities:

Written Comprehension: understanding written sentences and paragraphs.

Written Expression: using English words or sentences in writing so that others will understand.

Memorization: remembering information, such as words, numbers, pictures and procedures. Pieces of information can be remembered by themselves or with other pieces of information.

Problem Sensitivity: being able to tell when something is wrong or is likely to go wrong. It includes being able to identify the whole problem as well as elements of the problem.

Deductive Reasoning: applying general rules to specific problems and coming up with logical answers. It involves deciding if an answer makes sense.

Inductive Reasoning: combining separate pieces of information, or specific answers to problems, to form general rules or conclusions. It involves the ability to think of possible reasons for why things go together.

Information Ordering: following correctly a rule or set of rules or actions in a certain order. The rule or set of rules used must be given. The things or actions to be put in order can include numbers, letters, words, pictures, procedures, sentences, and mathematical or logical operations.

Spatial Orientation: determining where you are in relation to the location of some object or where the object is in relation to you.

Visualization: imagining how something would look when it is moved around or when its parts are moved or rearranged. It requires the forming of mental images of how patterns or objects would look after certain changes, such as unfolding or rotation. One has to predict how an object, set of objects, or pattern will appear after the changes have been carried out.

ADMISSION CARD: You should receive an Admission Card in the mail about 10 days before the date of the test. If you do not receive an Admission Card at least 4 days before the test date, you must go to the Examining Service Section, 1 Centre Street, 14th floor, Manhattan, to obtain a duplicate card.

THE TEST RESULTS: If you meet the education and experience requirements and pass the multiple-choice test, your name will be placed in final score order on an eligible list and you will be given a list number. You will be notified by mail of your test results. If you meet all requirements and conditions, you will be considered for appointment when your name is reached on the eligible list.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Selective Certification for Driver License: If you have a motor vehicle Driver License that is valid in the State of New York, you may be considered for appointment to positions requiring this license through a process called Selective Certification. If you qualify for Selective Certification, you may be given preferred consideration for positions requiring this license. Follow the instructions given to you on the day of the test to indicate your interest in such Selective Certification. If you are appointed through Selective Certification, you must maintain your motor vehicle Driver License for the duration of your employment.

Selective Certification for Foreign Language and/or American Sign Language: If you possess the ability to speak a foreign language and/or if you know American Sign Language, you may be considered for appointment to positions requiring this ability through a process called Selective Certification. If you pass a qualifying test, you may be given preferred consideration for positions requiring this ability. Follow the instructions given to you in the test booklet on the day of the test to indicate your interest in such Selective Certification.

Selective Certification for Gender: The eligible list resulting from this examination may be selectively certified to fill vacancies designated for males or females only based on a bona fide occupational qualification. When the eligible list is not selectively certified as stated herein, appointments will be made without regard to the gender of the eligibles. Follow the instructions given to you in the test booklet on the day of the test to indicate your interest in such Selective Certification.

SPECIAL TEST ACCOMMODATIONS: If you plan to request special testing accommodations due to disability or an alternate test date due to your religious belief, follow the instructions included with the "Application for Examination."
