FY12 REGULATORY AGENDA

SUBJECT AREA

General permit provisions

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED RULE

The proposal is to amend Article 5 of the New York City Health Code.

REASON WHY ACTION IS BEING CONSIDERED

As part of a comprehensive review of the New York City Health Code, the Department has revised numerous provisions relating to its issuance of permits and licenses to more accurately align its fees to match its operating costs and expenses in accordance with a changing regulatory environment.

INDIVIDUALS LIKELY TO BE AFFECTED

Individuals/entities issued or seeking licenses/permits from the Department

Nutrition and physical activity

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED RULE

Amend Article 48 of the New York City Health Code to strengthen promotion of healthy food and physical activity in camp settings.

REASON WHY ACTION IS BEING CONSIDERED

Obesity is epidemic in New York, and begins early in life. In New York City one in five public school children is obese. Being obese in childhood increases the likelihood of adult obesity, which is associated with diabetes, high blood pressure, high cholesterol, heart disease, and cancer.

INDIVIDUALS LIKELY TO BE AFFECTED

Scalding burn injuries

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED RULE

Add new section to Article 131 requiring water temperature at outlet taps in residential buildings to be no more than 120 degrees F to prevent scalding burns.

REASON WHY ACTION IS BEING CONSIDERED

Scalding tap water burns are a significant cause of injury, disfigurement, loss of function, and mortality in young children and the elderly. Estimates from the United State Consumer Products Safety Commission indicate that approximately 3,800 injuries and 34 deaths occur in the home each year due to scalding from excessively hot tap water. The majority of these injuries involve the elderly and children under the age of five whose skin is more sensitive to burns.

Building Drinking Water Storage Tanks

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED RULE

Amendment of Article 141 of the New York City Health Code

REASON WHY ACTION IS BEING CONSIDERED

This amendment is needed to clarify enforcement of the requirement for building owners to perform annual drinking water tank inspections in accordance with Health Code §141.07(b). Failure to submit a report when requested by the Department will be considered prima facie evidence that no inspection was conducted. Additionally, a revision is needed to indicate that an owner shall be subject to a violation for failure to perform bacteriological testing (or other required element(s)) of a water tank inspection for each year that a complete inspection report is not provided to the Department.

INDIVIDUALS LIKELY TO BE AFFECTED

Persons and entities in the City of New York that own buildings where drinking water is collected and dispensed from roof top tanks.

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED RULE

Amendment of pool operator course requirements

REASON WHY ACTION IS BEING CONSIDERED

New York City Health Code § 165.15(b)(1) requires that pools be managed by a certified pool operator that has successfully completed a course in swimming pool technology administered by the Department. The Department proposes to change the language of § 165.15(b)(1) to require pool operators to complete a course either administered or approved by the New York State Department of Health (NYSDOH). There are a number of NYSDOH-approved courses available to the public.

INDIVIDUALS LIKELY TO BE AFFECTED

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED RULE

Technical updates are proposed to §§ 175.02 (Definitions), 175.03 (Standards for protection against radiation), 175.101 (general requirements for radioactive materials licenses) and 175.104 (Waste disposal) in order to conform to federal regulatory changes.

REASON WHY ACTION IS BEING CONSIDERED

The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission amended Title 10 of the Code of Federal Regulations to effect the above-referenced changes. New York City (as well as other Agreement States) is required to make commensurate changes to its radiation regulations to remain compatible with federal law.
