TLC URGES MEDALLION TAXICAB DRIVERS TO SERVE THE PUBLIC PARTICIPATING IN "WALL STREET WEDNESDAYS"

In an effort to restore the economic vitality that existed in lower Manhattan prior to September 11, the Wall Street community has launched a program called Wall Street Wednesdays, in which five upscale restaurants in the financial district are offering three-course dinners for a fixed price of $20.01.

The New York City Taxi and Limousine Commission (TLC) strongly encourages medallion taxicab drivers to serve the area in anticipation of increased passenger demand. For further information, please consult the TLC's web site at www.NYC.gov/taxi, or call the TLC's Customer Service Hotline at 212-NYC-TAXI.

The program, which was initiated on October 24, and continues every Wednesday, includes the participation of the following restaurants:

Vine

Broad Street at Exchange Place

The 14 Wall Street Restaurant

Wall Street between New and Broad Streets

Delmonico's

Beaver Street near William Street

Harry's Hanover Square

Hanover Square

55 Wall

Wall Street between William and Hanover Streets

Dinner is served from 5:30 – 10:30 p.m.
