SELECTIVE FOR-HIRE VEHICLE RULES AND COMMUTER VAN RULES ARE SUSPENDED FOR THE DURATION OF THE BUS STRIKE AFFECTING CERTAIN QUEENS PASSENGERS

On Monday, June 17, 2002, Mayor Michael R. Bloomberg signed a declaration relating to the bus strike affecting Queens Transit, Triboro Coach Lines, and Jamaica Lines in Queens, New York.

Pursuant to authority conferred under an Emergency Order signed by Mayor Michael R. Bloomberg, New York City Taxi and Limousine Commissioner/Chair Matthew W. Daus hereby suspends enforcement of For-Hire Vehicle Rule 6-16(f) against licensed for-hire vehicle operators accepting passengers by means other than prearrangement at certain locations along selected bus routes affected by this job action. For-hire vehicle operators are authorized to accept passengers without prearrangement, and to engage in group-rides, for a fare of $2.50 per person. Additionally, TLC Chair Daus suspends enforcement of Commuter Van Rules 9-10(d), 9-10(e)(1), and 9-10(e)(2) against licensed commuter van operators accepting passengers by means other than prearrangement at certain locations along selected bus routes affected by this job action. Commuter van operators are authorized to accept passengers without prearrangement, to operate outside of the geographical area set forth in their operation authorization, and to accept and discharge passengers on streets within such geographical limits which otherwise constitute bus routes and at points which otherwise constitute bus stops, and charge a fare of $1.50 per person.
