INDUSTRY INFORMATION | INDUSTRY NOTICES

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
 Industry Notice #04-21
 August 31, 2004

The New York City Taxi and Limousine Commission (TLC) reminds all licensed medallion taxicab drivers that laws and regulations prohibiting service refusals and overcharges will be vigorously enforced. Penalties for violations of these regulations range from a $200 fine to mandatory license revocation. Drivers are also reminded of TLC regulations requiring them to offer passengers a receipt at the conclusion of the ride.

Thank you for your attention.....the TLC is confident in your ability to help the Big Apple shine during this historic week!
