

UNDERSTANDING THE NYC 2010 ELECTION BALLOT

A PANEL DISCUSSION

The NYC Voter Assistance Commission (VAC) along with the National Association of Latino Elected Officials Educational Fund (NALEO) will host a non-partisan panel discussion regarding the questions on this year's election ballot. This year, voters will decide on two new Ballot Questions: Term Limits, and Elections and Government Administration.

Please join us on

Thursday, October 28, 2010

at the

City University of New York

Joseph S. Murphy Institute

25 West 43rd Street, 18th Floor.

(43rd Street between 5th and 6th Avenues)

New York, NY 10036

2:00pm – 4:00pm

The discussion will begin promptly.

Refreshments will be provided

Panelists:

Amy Loprest

NYC Campaign Finance Board
Executive Director

Alex Camarda

Citizen Union
Director of Public Policy & Advocacy

Lorna Goodman

Charter Revision Commission
Executive Director

Julissa Gutierrez

Northeast Director of Civic Engagement
NALEO Educational Fund

Onida Coward Mayers

Executive Director
NYC Voter Assistance Commission

New Voting Machine Demonstration

This forum is part of VAC's annual Voter Awareness Month program. Voter Awareness Month is an annual citywide, non-partisan community outreach campaign to promote and raise awareness to the importance of

For more information, please call (212)480-1918 or email aalmanzar@naleo.org .

